Feeding from The Cemetery is a collection of epitaphs from Langata Cemetery.
Some say the book concept is spooky, some say it is profound, and some say it is an out of the world concept; maybe, just maybe because it is a collection of messages from people who are "Out of this world"
The book is as it is "Feeding from The Cemetery"; as 30% of the profits go to a feeding program by Kibera Day Care Center for the Elderly (KDCCE), the remaining profits is spilt to feeding the government through taxes, the church through Tithes/offerings and of course feeding me.
Not to sound overly profound but the messages from the epitaphs including the scriptures will not only feed your mind but also your spirit.

The author is not claiming to be as old as His grandma, although both have lived for two centuries. I mean in two centuries.
Nor is the author claiming Jesus is his brother in as much as he and Jesus both call God, "Our Father.
M.D.Njiru is a work of art/an artist in progress. He is currently expressing his art through standup comedy, speaking and writing.
He is the founder of Maktaba Dijitali whose raison d'etre is fanning the reading culture.
In addition to all that, M.D.Njiru is a devoted Christian and a mental health advocate (through standup comedy and writing)
Other books by the author are A Kachumbari (meant to rally the Kenyan spirit) and Antidote PREPSH (A mental health book)

Published By
Maktaba Dijitali
Fanning the reading culture
0732274116

ISBN 978-9914-50-325-8.

FEEDING FORM THE CEMETERY A COLLECTION OF EPITAPHS VOL 1.

M.D. NJIRU

30% of the profits go to Kibera Day Care Center for the Elderly feeding program.

FEEDING FROM THE CEMETERY

A Collection of Epitaphs

Volume 1.

M.D. Njiru

Maktaba Dijitali
Fanning the reading culture