

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Pita, formerly known as Peter, is a poet and philosopher. His journey into poetry began in 2022 during his first year at Kenyatta University when he encountered what is known as the dark night of the soul. This transformative experience led him to deeper reflections on life, mysticism, and the nature of existence, shaping his unique voice as a writer.

Through his poetry and philosophical musings, Pita seeks to unveil hidden truths, challenge conventional thought, and inspire those on their own paths of self-discovery.
