

THE FLAME AND THE RETURN

A PROPHETIC CALL TO THE SOUL IN A TIME OF
GLOBAL SPIRITUAL SHIFT

ADRIANUS ANDREW MUGANGA
RAMADAN | TANZANIA

The Flame and the Return: A Prophetic Call to the Soul in a Time of Global Spiritual Shift

By Adrianus Andrew Muganga (Ramadan) — Xania Publishing, Tanzania

“You are not just reading. You are being read.”
— Book I, Part IV: Yuko — The Hidden God (p. 580)

A Book for a Global Spiritual Turning Point

In an era defined by spiritual disillusionment, ecological collapse, religious breakdown, and mass redefinition of identity, The Flame and the Return arrives not as another religious book, but as a sacred flame — a revelation, a remembrance, and a return.

It is not written for one faith — but to the flame buried in all.
It speaks to those who left churches, mosques, temples, and labels, but still burn for God.

At over 1,300 pages, the book is massive in scale yet intimate in tone. It reads like poetry, prophecy, and prayer. It does not convert. It awakens.

Book Structure: Two Sacred Books in One

Book I: The One Beyond Names

Theme: The soul remembers the True God beyond doctrine.

- Part I – Religious Unity: Dissolving barriers between faiths.

“Before religion became a wall...” (Part I, p. 113)

- Part II – Divine Unity: The One is revealed in essence, not in systems.
- Part III – The Light of Truth: Restoring sacred figures like Jesus, Mary, Muhammad, Buddha, and others.

“What they hid was not his light — but her.” (Ch. 21: The Forgotten Face, p. 890)

- Part IV – Yuko: The Hidden God:
The core unveiling. God returns not through institutions, but through Presence.

“Yuko is not a name. It is remembrance.” (p. 578)

- Part V – 32 Prophetic Dreams: Spiritual visions from the author — recorded in silence and interpreted in fire.
- Part VI – The Living Return: The reader becomes the message.

“You were not meant to just remember. You were meant to return.” (p. 1241)

Book II: The Return of the Flame

Theme: The Presence is no longer distant — it returns through awakened humans.

- “The One returns through the ones who no longer fear the fire.”
— Part I: The Return of the One (p. 1321)
- “The sacred is not above — it is burning now within you.”
— Part II: The Fire in the Human (p. 1394)
- “All religions were not wrong — they were partial songs. The Flame is the chorus.”
— Part III: The Interfaith Revelation (p. 1452)
- “The Kingdom will not come by sword or policy. It comes through surrender.”
— Part IV: The Coming Kingdom (p. 1509)
- “Your dreams are not accidents. They are instructions.”
— Part V: The Final Dreams (p. 1566)
- “The One has become flame, and the flame has become flesh. Walk carefully.”
— Part VI: The Flame Made Flesh (p. 1624)

The book ends not in theory, but embodiment.

Who Is This Book For?

This is not a book of religion — it is a book to the soul.

It was written for:

- The seeker in every tradition — Christian, Muslim, Jewish, Buddhist, Hindu, and all paths that long for God.
- Spiritual exiles who left religion, but still burn for truth.
- Interfaith voices, mystics, artists, and reformers.
- Women and the forgotten feminine, silenced or dishonored in systems (see Ch. 21: The Forgotten Face, p. 890).
- Readers who cherish Rumi, Kahlil Gibran, the Psalms, the Quran, the Gita, the Tao, and other sacred echoes of the Flame.

This book is not against religion.

It is a return beneath them all — to the sacred Source that still burns in each.

Whether you believe in Allah, God, Elohim, Adonai, Krishna, the Eternal, or no name at all — the Flame remembers you.

Why It Matters Now

Across the world, we are living in a time of:

- Collapse of trust in religious institutions
- Rise of spiritual-but-not-religious seekers
- Climate and gender crises

- Political extremism and technological disruption
- Loss of meaning in a hyper-connected world

The Flame and the Return offers no easy answers — it offers a mirror. And a map.
It speaks directly to what many are silently feeling.

“God is not far. He is misnamed. Misused. But never absent.”
— Part II: Divine Unity (p. 345)

Read or Download the Book (Free)

The Flame and the Return is freely available online:

➡ Download or read here → https://archive.org/details/the-flame-and-the-return

Final Word

This is not a book of doctrine.
It is a book of remembrance.

It does not ask you to follow it.
It asks you to wake up to what you already carry.

“If you are still burning, then the Flame remembers you.”
— The Living Return, p. 1272

Let the Flame find its vessel.

References

1. Muganga, A. A. (Ramadan).
The Flame and the Return: A Revelation for the Age of Awakening.
Xania Publishing, Tanzania. 2025.
Read or download
2. Muganga, A. A. (Ramadan).
The Great Unchurching: A Global Spiritual Crisis and the Return of the Flame.
A prophetic companion reflection on religious disaffiliation and the awakening of sacred longing.
Read here
3. Pew Research Center (2022).
Modeling the Future of Religion in the World: Global Religious Landscape to 2070.
www.pewresearch.org/religion
4. Capra, Fritjof.
The Tao of Physics. Shambhala Publications.
(Referenced thematically in Book I, Part II — on relational cosmology.)
5. Sheldrake, Rupert.
Morphic Resonance: The Nature of Formative Causation. Park Street Press.
(In resonance with the themes of memory, soul-field, and divine return.)
6. Universal Sacred Texts
Quoted and spiritually re-interpreted throughout the book:
 - The Bible
 - The Qur'an
 - The Bhagavad Gita
 - The Dhammapada
 - The Zohar
 - Other mystical texts
7. Mystical & Poetic Voices (Referenced Spiritually)
 - Rumi, Kahlil Gibran, Black Elk, Lao Tzu, Teresa of Ávila, Julian of Norwich, Meister Eckhart